The complainant has booked flat no. 303 of C-wing in the respondent's registered project 'Ajayraj Complex P-IV' situated at village Kirat, Palghar. The respondent failed to hand over the possession thereof on agreed date 31st May 2016. The complainant withdraws from the project and claims his amount with interest and/or compensation under Section 18 of Real Estate (Regulation and Redevelopment) Act, 2016.

2. Respondent has failed to appear despite the service of notice marked Exh. B. Hence the complaint proceeds exparte against him.

3. The complainant has produced the copy of the agreement for sale showing that the respondent agreed to hand over the possession of the booked flat on or before 31st December 2016. However, respondent has failed to hand over the possession on the agreed date. I record my finding to this effect.

4. Section 18 of RERA permits the allottee to withdraw from the project on the promoter's failure to hand over the possession of the flat on the specified date of handing over the possession mentioned in the agreement and claim refund of his amount with interest. He is entitled to get its reimbursement. The prescribed rate of interest is 2% above SBI's highest MCLR which is currently 8.55%. The complainant is also entitled to get Rs. 10,000/- towards the cost of the complaint. Hence, the order.

ORDER

The complaint shall refund the amount mentioned in the payment format marked Exh. 'A' with simple interest at the rate of 10.55% per annum from the date of the payments mentioned therein, till they are refunded.

The payment format marked Exh. 'A' shall form the part of the order.
