Final Order

The learned advocate of the complainant has been heard. According to him this is the case which attracts section 12 of RERA. However, the facts disclosing the violation of Section 12 have not been mentioned in the complaint. Therefore, he has filed a precipe marked Exhibit 'A' contending that that complainant wants to withdraw the complaint with the permission to file another by disclosing the necessary facts. Hence the order.

Order

The complaint stands disposed off as withdrawn. Permission is granted to file another complaint under section 12 of RERA.
