Except the complainant Mr.Mane the other complainants have prayed for other reliefs. However, they have not pressed them save and except the relief of interest under Section 18 of RERA.

2. The notices in all these matters have been served upon the respondent. However, he has failed to appear and contest the matters. Hence, these complaints proceed exparte against him.

3. Whether the respondent, on his failure to hand over the possession of the booked flats on agreed dates is liable to pay the complainants interest on their investments for every month of delay and whether they are entitled to possession of their flats?, are the issues to be answered.

4. I have verified from the documents placed by the complainants before me that the respondent agreed to hand over the possession of their flats on the agreed dates and they have paid the amount mentioned in the table towards the consideration of the flats. The complainants want the possession and under Section 19 (3) of RERA, it is the responsibility of the respondent to deliver it on receiving their dues.

5. The complainants have been claiming interest on their investments because of the delayed possession. As per Section 18 of RERA they are entitled to get interest on investment made before the agreed date of possession, from the date of default and on subsequent payment from the date of those payments till receiving the possession. The prescribed rate of interest is 2% above SBI's highest MCLR which is currently 8.55%. The complainants are also entitled to get Rs. 10,000/- towards the cost of their complaint.

6. The learned advocate of the complainants submits that the respondent has been claiming the amount/charges for facilities and amenities which are not being provided at the time of handing over the possession. This issue has been decided by this Authority in Rajesh Sharma and Ors. -v/s-Vinay Agrawal (CC0060000000054566). In this case Hon'ble Chairperson of the Authority has directed the respondent not to demand charges for facilities / amenities which are not being provided at the time of handing over possession and until such time the said facilities/amenities are provided. Hence, the following order.

ORDER

The respondent shall pay the complainants the simple interest at the rate of 10.55% per annum on their investments made before the date of possession, from the date of default and on subsequent payment from the date of those payments till handing over the possession of their flats mentioned in the table appearing in para 1 of the order.

The respondent shall pay the complainant/s of each complaint Rs. 10,000/- towards the cost of complaint.

The respondent shall hand over the possession of the complainants' flats on the payment of the agreed amount of consideration.

Respondent shall not demand charges for facilities / amenities which are not being provided at the time of handing over possession and until such time the said facilities/amenities are provided.
