Dear Friends,

The real estate industry as you see, has been witnessing some changes for real! And, we as a developer community are happy to be part of the changes that will make the process of development much smoother and less complicated.

Friends, the industry has been passing a critical phase, and we as the representative body of the developer community, are committed to do our best – and even stretch an extra mile – to see to it that all of us can do our business in a much more congenial atmosphere than what it is today.

MCHI has been raising the community voice from time to time through various forums. One such forum is the Media.

To create a strong bond with the Media, MCHI has organized a press conference on Thursday – September 15, 2011 at the MCHI office, to highlight and communicate the following issues which concern the end user.
