STATEMENT

The Constitution of India has been amended by the Constitution (Ninety-seventh Amendment) Act, 2011, with a view to insert a new Part IX-B regarding "the Co-operative Societies" in the Constitution. By the said Ninety-seventh Amendment Act, article 19 of the Constitution has been amended to incorporate the right to form "co-operative societies" as a fundamental right. A new article which provides for the State to endeavour to promote voluntary formation, autonomous functioning, democratic control and professional management of co-operative societies has also been incorporated as article 43B in Part IV of the Constitution. Article 243ZT of the Constitution, as inserted by the said Ninety-seventh Amendment Act provides that any provision in the law relating to co-operative societies in the State immediately before the commencement of the said Ninety-seventh Amendment Act, which is inconsistent with the said newly inserted Part IX-B of the Constitution, shall continue to be in force until amended or repealed by the competent legislature or until the expiration of one year from the date of such commencement. The said Constitution (Ninety-seventh Amendment) Act, 2011, came into force on the 15th February 2012.

2. It was accordingly proposed to amend the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies Act, 1960 (Mah. XXIV of 1961), to make it in consonance with the said Ninety-seventh Amendment Act.

3. The salient features of the then proposed amendments, were as under:—

(i) to provide that the maximum number of members of the committee of a co-operative society shall be twenty-one, out of which along with the other reserved seats two seats shall be reserved for women;

(ii) to provide that the term of the office of elected member of committee and its office bearers shall be five years from the date of their election;

(iii) to provide for establishment of the State Co-operative Election Authority, which shall be vested with the power to supervise, control and conduct elections to the societies;

(iv) to provide for filling of casual vacancy by nomination, if the term of office of the committee is less than half of its original term;

(v) to provide for co-option of expert directors and functional directors;

(vi) to provide for suspension or supersession of the committees of the co-operative societies, for the period not exceeding six months where the Government has held the shares of such society or granted any loan or provided financial assistance or any guarantee, and for period not exceeding one year in case of co-operative banks;

(vii) to provide for an audit of accounts of the societies at least once in each financial year through the auditor or auditing firms appointed by the general body of the co-operative society from a panel approved by the Government or any authority authorised by it;

(viii) to provide for convening general body meeting of every society within a period of six months of close of the financial year ;

(ix) to provide for settlement of disputes by arbitration or conciliation and by mediation through Lok- Adalat, and for appointment of Grievances Settlement and Redressal Committees for settlement of grievances;

(x) to provide that, in respect of the co-operative societies doing banking business the provisions of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 shall also apply.

4. As both Houses of the State Legislature were not in session and the Governor of Maharashtra was satisfied that, circumstances existed which rendered it necessary for him to take immediate action further to amend the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies Act, 1960 (Mah. XXIV of 1961), for the purposes aforesaid, the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Ordinance, 2013 (Mah. Ord.II of 2013), was promulgated by the Governor of Maharashtra on the 14th February 2013.

5. Thereafter, the session of the State Legislature was convened by the Hon'ble Governor on the 11th March 2013 and a Bill for converting the said Ordinance into an Act of the State Legislature was introduced in the State Legislative Council as L.C. Bill No. II of 2013 on the 25th March 2013. The said Bill was passed by the State Legislative Council on the 15th April 2013 with amendments ; and transmitted to the State Legislative Assembly. However, on the 17th April 2013, the said Bill has been referred to the Joint Committee of both the Houses of the State Legislature and the session of the State Legislature was prorogued on the 18th April 2013. As provided by article 213 (2) (a) of the Constitution of India, the said Ordinance has ceased to operate at the expiration of six weeks from the date of reassembly of the State Legislature that is, after the 21st April 2013 and the Government considers it expedient to continue the operation of the provisions of the said Ordinance.

6. As both Houses of the State Legislature are not in session and the Governor of Maharashtra is satisfied that circumstances still exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action to continue the provisions of the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Ordinance, 2013 (Mah. Ord. II of 2013), for the purposes aforesaid, this Ordinance is promulgated.

Mumbai,
Dated the 25th April 2013.

K. SANKARANARAYANAN,
Governor of Maharashtra.

By order and in the name of the
Governor of Maharashtra,

RAJGOPAL DEVARA,
Secretary to Government.
