Dear

CREDAI-MCHI is thankful to the Government of Maharashtra for implementing Right to Service Act to bring transparency and accountability in the various departments and agencies, which provide public services to the eligible persons and for matter connected to them in a time bound period.

I also congratulate you for becoming the 1st Chief Commissioner for Right to Services Act for the state. I have been wanting to meet you for some time now.

We at CREDAI-MCHI would like to seek your help in getting to know the processes and details of Services for which one can claim the Right, especially in Revenue Department. The rules and notifications briefly mentioned few items and the method of applying to the designated Officer and the Appellate Authority. I would be grateful, if some brief information is provided to us in this regard.

We would like to discuss the matter in detail, when time given to us, to meet you at your earliest convenience.

Yours

(S. S. Hussain)
