Ref. No. MCHI/PRES/14-15/008

June 30, 2014

To,
All Members of MCHI-CREDAI
& MCHI-CREDAI Units,

Dear All,

There was a Core Committee Member's meeting held with Shri Rakesh Maria (I.P.S), Commissioner of Police for Mumbai City, on June 17, 2014 evening. MCHI-CREDAI delegation was led by me for General discussions about the prevailing situation, security concerns, etc.

During deliberation the Commissioner of Police informed that he is taking few initiatives in his area of working for the safety and security of women and also as a part of their empowerment under "Right to Freedom". The preparations are on through pamphlets, brochures for personal contacts etc. Lady Officers as well as Male Officers of the rank of Sub-Inspector, have been picked up and trained for the outreach. Their individual phone numbers will be provided for immediate communication, if in the situation of distress and need. It is also a part of awareness campaign for social security, particularly for the ladies. He desired that people should come out and help Police in its efforts.

Accordingly MCHI-CREDAI is going to form the Trust which will be known as "Mumbai Police Foundation", which would be useful for Mumbai Police Welfare purpose only. A strong network of our organization can be formed in their helping hand campaign.

Therefore MCHI-CREDAI has decided to commit our contribution for the Mumbai Police Foundation and requesting to contribute the same, and each member is expected to contribute for minimum 1 Lac Rupees for this Foundation.

Please come forward and send your generous contribution !

Regards,
For MCHI-CREDAI

Vimal Shah
President
