Sub: Request for your inputs on draft EODB Manual

Ref: Meeting held with Principal Secretary (Revenue) on February 9, 2018 at 1.00 pm

My Dear Shri Kushwah,

This is just to inform you that we CREDAI-MCHI Members had a brief meeting with Shri Manu Kumar Srivastava, Principal Secretary of Revenue Department on February 9, 2018 at Mantralaya in presence of Shri S. Chokalingam (I.A.S.), Settlement Commissioner and Shri Anil Kawade (I.A.S.), Inspector General of Registration & Controller of Stamps of State of Maharashtra to discuss the Draft EoDB Manual for Division Commissioner's Office and Settlement Commissioner's Office.

In order to, prepare the draft manuals, Shri Nayan Shah, President-Elect, CREDAI-MCHI and Shri Shailesh Puranik, Invitee Member, CREDAI-MCHI had taken extensive effort by preparing each and every point by doing proper survey and examining real cases, looking into every aspect, which occur in the whole process. The Principal Secretary of Revenue Department suggested to the delegation that the draft manual book of Divisional Commissioner should be sent to Divisional Commissioner, Konkan Division and all the District Collectors in MMR jurisdiction for their necessary study and ready reference. The Department expects your suggestions on these points incorporated in the said manual. Thereafter, the authority would take final decisions for easing this process.

Hence, on behalf of CREDAI-MCHI, I am sending you the soft copy and hard copy of the draft manual book for Divisional Commissioner office, which you may study and give your inputs in the same. Your co-operation will make the historic changes to get the EoDB reforms in the revenue department to bring New Era in the system and help State Government in the over all Ranking!

Regards

Yours Sincerely

(S. S. Hussain)

To,
Shri Deependra Singh Kushwah
