Ref. No. MCHI/CEO/13-14/010

June 14, 2013

To,
Hon'ble Shri Sitaram Kunte (IAS)
Commissioner
Municipal Corporation of Greater Mumbai
Municipal Head Office,
Mahapalika Marg
Mumbai - 400001

Dear Shri Kunte,

You may be aware that the builders/developers have to face the issue of various types of NOCs for getting building permissions as well as the Commencement Certificate to take up any project in the city. In order to ease the situation and reach a level where Single Window Clearances could become an ideal solution, correct information and awareness is desirable.

We would like to know the various departments through which one has to go to get NOC before starting the construction of project. Perhaps, it is said, that each project needs clearances or NOCs from about 50 places to see the light of the day when the Mahurat/Bhoomi Poojan for any project has to be reached.

May I request you to please provide us a list of types of clearances and the departments under Construction and Building Department or any other, so that a positive approach could be arranged to save time for going through such a long list of places.

With best personal regards, Yours Sincerely,
